and which was hosted by The Institution of Engineers, Australia (Engineers Australia) and The Royal Aeronautical Society, Australian Division (RaeS).

Publication of Papers and How to Reference an Individual Paper:

Papers were published in a USB Drive which included all AIAC16 papers; of those papers, only those papers relating to HUMS2015 are included here:

Proceedings of Ninth DSTO International Conference on Health and Usage Monitoring, Melbourne – HUMS2015, as included in Proceedings of 16th Australian International Aerospace Congress, AIAC16, February 2015.

Papers are separate pdf files allowing papers to be accessed separately by the paper number. Clicking on the links (101 to 403) will open that document directly. As for previous years, a trailing “s” on the link indicates slides only. Reference lists should show the paper name and authors and show it as being part of item in paragraph above.

Note that these compilations are copyright to Commonwealth of Australia (as DSTO is a government agency) and each individual paper will also be copyright to authors and corporate authors.
